Mark your calendars and come out to beautiful Hopatcong Borough for Apple Pie and Art, a FREE, interactive, fantastic art show sponsored by the Hopatcong Creative Arts Council and Sussex County Community College on Saturday, September 24th from 11-4pm ET at Hopatcong High School.

Experience the breathtaking works of artist and renowned photographer Brad Guice, up-and-coming artist Marki Wolfson, artist/professor Julie McWilliams, and artist/teacher Jon Rischawy. Interact with the artists, learn from them, and try your hand at art as well! Take time to shop with vendors that are offering unique treasures. There will be LIVE music by the Jordan Pantaleo Band featured throughout the day. And don't forget to grab some of fall's most delicious treat, apple pie!

While strolling the halls and outdoor atrium of Hopatcong High School, take in spectacular artwork created by Hopatcong Borough students from grades K-12 as well as Sussex County Community College students' powerful pieces.

A 50/50 will be run and winner chosen by the end of the event. In addition, Brad Guice will be raffling off one of his extraordinary pieces.
