Accomplishments

Amanda Corujo, Amanda Sutton, Jennifer Coulman, Anthony Christiana and Teresa Turnage performed in the Sussex County Honors Band on November 16th to a sold out auditorium at Sparta High School. This is the first time in a very long time that 5 students from our district were accepted into the honors ensemble.

Congratulations Amanda Corujo and Anthony Christiana for placing first in their respective instruments. Amanda for 1st Chair Flute, and Athony for 1st Chair Trombone, receiving top chairs in the county.

Congratulations to Anthony Christiana who was selected to participate in the Group 1 Cross Country Championships due to his outstanding success throughout the Fall Season.

Congratulations to Natan Savage who was nominated to the 1st team All Colonial Division for Boys Soccer, and Sierra Simon and Jessica Alvarez were nominated to the 1st team All Colonial Division for Girls Soccer.

Congratulations to the High School Drama program and their production of "Little Women," which was presented to the community on December 8,9,10, 11. The play, with the direction of Mr. Joseph Ross and the technical guidance of Mr. Mike Batche was a resounding success.

Congratulations to Mr. Michael Juskus for being selected as the HHS Big Shoes Award Recipient for the Month of December.

The Hopatcong Student Council held a very successful blood drive on November 17, 2016. Many thanks to Ms. Joanne Carr and Mr. Jim MacDonald for organizing the drive and for the students and community members who donated.

The Hopatcong High School Honor Society's annual food drive collected 30 turkeys and made 35 baskets that were donated to families within our community.
