Press Release

Sussex County Band Honors Students

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE, October 27, 2016

Cynthia Randina, Hopatcong Superintendent of Schools, Announces

For the first time in a long time, Hopatcong High School sent five students to audition for the Sussex County Honors Band, and ALL five were accepted!

Top students from each school district in the county competed to participate in the honors ensembles. The students will participate in five rehearsals and perform a concert on Wednesday, November 16 at 7:30 pm at Sparta High School. This year's band will be conducted by Heather Buchanan, professor of music at Montclair University.

Special recognition to Amanda Corujo and Anthony Christiana for coming in first in their respective instruments, receiving top chairs in the county.

And to Amanda Corujo a second time for also auditioning for and coming in first place on Piccolo! Amanda chose to play flute in the band this year.

BRAVO to all!
