FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
October 6, 2015

Hopatcong, NJ – The Hopatcong Marching Chiefs perform at the 95th Annual Sussex County
Fireman’s Parade

The Hopatcong Marching Chiefs were proud to march in front of the Hopatcong Firemen leading off the 96th Annual Sussex County Fireman's Association Inspection Day & Parade, held on Saturday, October 3, 2015 right here in Hopatcong! Band director Kurt Zimmermann said “We are thrilled to do this for our firemen, and the parade is an annual highlight of our season. We look forward to doing it every year, and it was a great thrill to do it here in town.” The long parade route was crowded by hundreds of people, braving the cold and wet weather to honor the Fire Departments. This important day for New Jersey Firemen not only includes presentation of trucks, equipment and companies, but includes competitions for company Marching, Apparatus and Hose Laying and for Marching Bands representing the communities of the competing firemen.
