Title: Durban Avenue's Essay Contest Winners Announced!

Cynthia Randina, Hopatcong Superintendent of Schools, Announces –

On Friday, May 6th, the winners of the second annual essay contest were announced at the Durban Avenue School. Students were asked to write a two-page response to Elvira Woodruff's book George Washington's Socks by considering a time period in which they would like to visit. The 24 lucky winners and a guest of their choice, will have the opportunity to personally meet and have lunch with Ms. Woodruff at the HEPTO sponsored assembly on Tuesday, May 24th, where they will receive free copies of her book. All Durban Avenue students are fortunate to participate in the school-wide assembly. Students were also able to order autographed copies of Ms. Woodruff's books. Ms. Woodruff has written numerous children's books, including George Washington's Spy. Congratulations to all of the essay contest winners!
