Title: Durban Volunteers “Rock”!

Cynthia Randina, Hopatcong Superintendent of Schools, Announces –

The Hopatcong Education Association was the proud sponsor of the PRIDE Volunteer Luncheon at the Durban Avenue School on Thursday, June 2nd. This annual event brings together parent volunteers, staff members, administrators, parents and children in a very special way. The theme this year was, “Our Volunteers Rock!” In order to follow that, 50’s music played in the background while everyone enjoyed “brunch” that morning catered by the 3-in-1 Deli in Hopatcong.

Hand-made decorations were made by the students at the Durban Avenue School. There were thank you cards and posters all throughout the library. This Hopatcong Education Association luncheon demonstrated how much we here at the Durban Avenue School appreciate our hard-working and dedicated volunteers.

Of course we also had entertainment supplied to us by our very own music teacher, Mr. Costanzo, and some of our very talented students who played instruments for us to enjoy!! Students on the saxophone and drums were highlighted this year. Principal, Mrs. Tracey Hensz spoke to our volunteers about their importance and how much we appreciate all of their time and effort. A special thanks to Mr. Costanzo, Mrs. Dawn Valle-Campo, Mrs. Kristine Mendyk, and Mrs. Kristine Kester for all of their hard work and dedication in making this event so special!! It was a wonderful time for all!!
