Title: 100 Days of Learning...100+ Ways of Helping!

Art DiBenedetto, Hopatcong Superintendent of Schools, Announces-

It was FINALLY that time of year again! The children at Hudson Maxim waited longer than ever to celebrate their 100th Day of School. 100 days of learning finally occurred on February 26th! First grade teacher, Doreen Sciabica and School Counselor, Lisa Schuffenhauer, again worked with Connect for Community to coordinate a donation of items needed by local food pantries. Since February was also Dental Health Month, Kindergarten students were encouraged to bring toothbrushes and first graders were responsible for toothpaste. Our pre-school students donated dental floss. The other Hopatcong Schools also participated by collecting soap, hair care products, toilet paper, and tissues with help from their school counselors. The results were, as always, wonderful! Two hundred seventy six items were collected for those in need in Sussex County! As with our recent Souper Bowl, the children and parents of Hudson Maxim and the other Hopatcong schools are exceedingly generous. Thank you!
