

Learning Today. Leading Tomorrow.

HHS Students Attend the High School Learning Through Experience Program at Raritan Valley Community College

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE, October 24, 2017

Dr. Joanne Mullane, Hopatcong Acting Superintendent of Schools, Announces

Students from Hopatcong High School's Global History and US History 2 classes traveled to Raritan Valley Community College to attend The High School Learning Through Experience Program sponsored by The Institute for Holocaust and Genocide Studies. The Keynote speaker for this program was Margit Feldman, a Holocaust survivor from Hungary. Margit shared her life experiences with the students including the years she spent in various Nazi concentration camps as well as her transition to life here in the United States. Students were then given the opportunity to have a question and answer session with Margit about her experiences and opinions. Students then were able to see a one person play entitled "Within the Silence" a story about Japanese internment camps during WWII.

