NJSCA Announces 2015 “COUNSELOR OF THE COUNTY” AWARDS RECIPIENTS

Jersey City, NJ. -On Wednesday, May 20, 2015, NJSCA honored school counselors from the different counties within the State of New Jersey at the annual “Counselor of the County” Awards Program held at New Jersey City University. School counselors are nominated by their colleagues and are selected by their own county’s School Counselor Associations for this award. The Awards luncheon was sponsored by the Undergraduate Admissions Department of New Jersey City University in Jersey City, NJ.

The award honors the professionals who devote their careers to serving as advocates - and often lifesavers - for the nation’s students. From these finalists, one will be named the 2015 NJ School Counselor of the Year. Lisa Schuffenhauer, a school counselor Hudson Maxim was selected as the 2014-2015 Counselor of the County for Sussex County.

Candidates are selected for the Counselor of the County Award at their county-level school counselor associations. They are selected because of their ability to deliver an effective school counseling program which focuses on academic development, career counseling, and personal/social support. They further distinguish themselves by proving to be leaders of systemic change, advocates for students, and collaborative professionals who seek the success of the “whole” student in school and in life.
