Hopatcong, NJ - Helping is Contagious!

Cynthia Randina, Hopatcong Superintendent of Schools, Announces -

Future Teachers ran a drive to help the Hopatcong Pound. Items were collected and brought yesterday to the pound. The students also made cat toys and brought the toys to the pound. Wendy Ciardi of the pounds tells FTA member Samantha Nielsen “thank you for all of the items, it really helps.” The pound is in desperate need of dog food, cat food, cat litter and blankets. If you can donate any of these items please drop them off either at the pound or at the High School in care of Mrs. Martinez.

Cats were overjoyed with all of the Presents from the Hopatcong High School FEA.

Amie Robertson helped FTA member Sam Nielsen bring the items to the pound.
