Hopatcong, NJ - Title
Cynthia Randina, Hopatcong Superintendent of Schools, Announces – Positive Coaches Award

High School Band Director Kurt Zimmermann was one of 16 North and Central New Jersey Coaches awarded “Positive Coach” recognition by the Somerset Patriots Baseball Organization. Positive Coaches Night, which occurred on June 16, recognized coaches who have gone above and beyond the playing field and have provided their players, school, and community with an enhanced positive environment. “Positive Coaches Night is a great opportunity for coaches throughout North and Central New Jersey to be recognized for all of their hard work and dedication to their teams,” said Patrick McVerry, President and General Manager of the Somerset Patriots.

The coaches were recognized on the field before the game and congratulated by former Patriots Manager and Yankee pitching great Sparky Lyle. Hopatcong Athletic Director and former Patriots pitcher Chris Buglovski, and 70 students, parents and family members joined Mr. Zimmermann for the festivities and a Patriots 8 – 1 win against the Bridgeport Bluefish.
