Tulsa Trail School Parent Volunteer Luncheon

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE, May 30, 2018

Mr. Paul J. Saxton, Hopatcong Superintendent of Schools, Announces

As the school year draws to a close, Tulsa Trail took time out to thank all the parent volunteers that made this year successful. On Friday May 25th, Jennifer Neu coordinated her 15th Parent Volunteer Luncheon, which was funded by a PRIDE grant provided through the Hopatcong Education Association. The parents helped out through HEPTO, the Books and Beyond program, as well as various school activities throughout the year. Volunteers enjoyed a catered lunch with desserts provided by the Tulsa Trail staff. Our school couldn't have a successful year without the partnerships of our community and parents. Thank You!!
